Talking Together: “Humanexus” Film Screening and Panel Discussion

Join us for a film screening and panel discussion of award-winning short film Humanexus.

Event Description

Join us for a screening of the award-winning short film, Humanexus, and a panel discussion on the importance of civil and civic discourse, also known as talking together, in an election year. Our multi-disciplinary panelists include Dr. Katy Börner (director of the Cyberinfrastructure for Network Science (CNS) Center), Dr. Lisa-Marie Napoli (Director of the Political and Civic Engagement (PACE) program), and Dr. Keith Barton (Professor of Curriculum and Instruction).

Parking Information:

Limited complimentary parking is available in front of the museum entrance off Indiana Avenue. Parking is free on weekends and on weekdays after 5:00 PM in the neighborhoods surrounding the museum and at the nearby Poplars Garage. Paid parking options include the McCalla Building lot off Indiana Avenue, the Indiana Memorial Union lots, and metered street parking in the downtown/Sample Gates area.

Click here or see below a map of city street parking in the area around the museum. Unless otherwise designated, all street parking in Zone 4 and Zone 5 is free on weekends and after 5:00 PM on weekdays.
