

Browse by Campus

Services & Resources

Browse by Topic

- Arts & Humanities
- Athletics
- Business
- Education
- General
- Health & Medicine
- Law
- Public & Environmental Affairs
- Science
- Social Science
- Technology

Multimedia News

- Newsletters
- Podcasts
- RSS Feeds
- Photos & Videos

Search

Google™ Custom Search

GO

For Journalists

Archives

Site Index

Contact Us

Public Affairs

Last modified: Wednesday, June 13, 2007

Print this page

Indiana Science Monthly flag

Vol. 4, no. 9 June 14, 2007

Indiana Science Monthly is a selection of recent news stories about Indiana University scientists and their research. Comments or questions about this newsletter may be directed to David Bricker, Office of Media Relations (812-856-9035 or brickerd@indiana.edu).

May science news:

- * Solid "crusts" and liquid "oceans" around neutron stars
- * Do pesticides cause premature births in the U.S.?
- * Monitoring Wikipedia's most controversial pages

Notices:

- * Eduardo Fernandez to turn Bloomington Science Cafe into a zoo

Media Contacts

- David Bricker
IU Media Relations
brickerd@indiana.edu
812-856-9035