IMCW2014 Symposium & ICKM2014 Conference

28 November 2014 / Aside / Uncategorized

Early bird registration for IMCW2014 and ICKM2014 extended to August 11, 2014

Dear Colleagues:

The 5th International Symposium on Information Management in a Changing World (<http://imcw2014.bilgiyonetimi.net/>) and the 10th International Conference on Knowledge Management (<http://ickm2014.bilgiyonetimi.net/>) will take place in Antalya, Turkey, from November 24-26, 2014, and their preliminary programs are available online. Both events are co-located (<http://www.miracleotel.com>) and we have a number of distinguished keynote and invited speakers as well as contributed papers, workshops and panels, among others. Participants who will register for one may attend the sessions of the other as well.

Due to a number of requests from would-be participants who are on summer vacation, the early bird registration period for both events has been extended till August 11, 2014. More information about the registration fees is available at <http://viyatour.com/imcw2014/> and <http://viyatour.com/ickm2014/>.

Looking forward to meeting you in Antalya, Turkey, in late November of this year.

Yasar Tonta

General Co-chair, IMCW2014 and ICKM2014
