

Call for Proposals

Conference Program

Map & Parking

Conference Registration

Location

Travel

Hotel Accommodations

Sponsors

AUGUST 8, 2018—AUGUST 11, 2018

Visible Evidence XXV

Bloomington, Indiana, USA

Visible Evidence, the international conference on documentary film and media, will convene for its 25th year at Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana August 8-11, 2018. VE XXV is hosted by Indiana University's Center for Documentary Research and Practice in collaboration with IU Cinema, the Media School, IU Bicentennial, Cinema and Media Studies, the College of Arts and Sciences, the Kinsey Institute, the Black Film Center/Archive, the IU Libraries Moving Image Archive, and the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation. VE XXV will feature the history, theory, and practice of documentary and nonfiction cinema, television, video, audio recording, digital media, photography, and performance, in a wide range of panels, workshops, plenary sessions, screenings, and special events.

Call for Proposals +

Map & Parking	+
Registration	+

Hotel

Accommodations	+
-----------------------	----------

Sponsors	+
-----------------	----------

Banner Images	+
----------------------	----------